Section 4: Legal Framework & Sector Overview

Findings are based on research as of June 6, 2026.

1: Legal & Jurisdictional Framework

N.C. Gen. Stat. §115C-218 et seq. (Charter Schools Act). N.C.G.S. §95-98 bans collective bargaining agreements with governmental units — charter schools are classified as private employers for labor law purposes. NLRB R11 jurisdiction. North Carolina is a right-to-work state (N.C. Gen. Stat. §95-78 through §95-84). Charter schools in North Carolina are subject to NLRB jurisdiction as private employers (NLRB R11). Secret ballot NLRB election is the required organizing pathway. Card-check is not available.

2: Charter Sector Structure

North Carolina operates 213 open-enrollment charter schools, enrolling approximately 153,008 students. 9 charter management organizations and education management organizations operate in North Carolina. The largest networks by campus count are KIPP North Carolina (4 campuses in state), Ascend Leadership Academy (2 campuses in state), Voyager Academy (2 campuses in state). Approximately 195 schools operate independently with no CMO or EMO affiliation. Network-level detail, including campus counts and total enrollment, appears in Section 3 above. No school-level union research has been conducted. Research deferred — Executive Sponsor direction (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).

Section 5: Media Coverage & Public Stakeholder Positions

Press Coverage

No press coverage of charter school employee organizing has been identified in North Carolina. Sector coverage focuses on growth, authorizer oversight, and school performance accountability.

Legislative Context

No charter-sector collective bargaining legislation has been introduced in the North Carolina General Assembly. The §95-98 government CB prohibition does not apply to charter schools as private employers. No legislative proposals addressing charter employee labor relations have been identified.

Section 6: Contract & CBA Access Registry

No collective bargaining agreements documented for this state. Research deferred — sector assumed unorganized (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).
