Section 4: Legal Framework & Charter School Overview

Findings are based on research as of June 6, 2026.

1: Legal & Jurisdictional Framework

Tenn. Code Ann. §49-13 (Public Charter Schools Act). Charter schools are independent employers. NLRB R10 private employer framework applies. Tennessee is a right-to-work state (Tenn. Code Ann. §50-1-201). Charter schools in Tennessee are subject to NLRB jurisdiction as private employers (NLRB R10). Secret ballot NLRB election is the required organizing pathway. Card-check is not available.

2: Charter School Structure

Tennessee operates 112 open-enrollment charter schools, enrolling approximately 44,349 students. 14 charter management organizations and education management organizations operate in Tennessee. The largest networks by campus count are KIPP Nashville (8 campuses in state), Compass Community Schools (6 campuses in state), Memphis Business Academy (5 campuses in state). Approximately 59 schools operate independently with no CMO or EMO affiliation. Network-level detail, including campus counts and total enrollment, appears in Section 3 above. No school-level union research has been conducted. Research deferred — Executive Sponsor direction (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).

Section 5: Media Coverage & Public Stakeholder Positions

Press Coverage

No press coverage of charter school employee organizing has been identified in Tennessee. Coverage focuses on ASD restructuring, CMO performance, and the district-employment structure.

Legislative Context

The Tennessee Professional Educators Collaboration Act (TPECA, Tenn. Code Ann. §49-5-610) governs collective bargaining for district-employed charter teachers. TPECA is distinct from private-sector NLRB framework. The Achievement School District conversion to local management in 2023 affected the authorized school population. No legislation addressing independent CMO charter employee labor relations has been identified.

Section 6: Contract & CBA Access Registry

No collective bargaining agreements documented for this state. Research deferred — charter schools assumed unorganized (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).
