Section 4: Legal Framework & Charter School Overview

Findings are based on research as of June 6, 2026.

1: Legal & Jurisdictional Framework

Utah Code Ann. §53G-5-3 et seq. (Charter School Act). Charter schools are independent employers. NLRB R28 private employer framework applies. Utah is a right-to-work state (Utah Code Ann. §34-34-1 through §34-34-17). Charter schools in Utah are subject to NLRB jurisdiction as private employers (NLRB R28). Secret ballot NLRB election is the required organizing pathway. Card-check is not available.

2: Charter School Structure

Utah operates 141 open-enrollment charter schools, enrolling approximately 81,879 students. 18 charter management organizations and education management organizations operate in Utah. The largest networks by campus count are American Preparatory Academy (6 campuses in state), Ascent Academies of Utah (5 campuses in state), Summit Academy (4 campuses in state). Approximately 95 schools operate independently with no CMO or EMO affiliation. Network-level detail, including campus counts and total enrollment, appears in Section 3 above. No school-level union research has been conducted. Research deferred — Executive Sponsor direction (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).

Section 5: Media Coverage & Public Stakeholder Positions

Press Coverage

No press coverage of charter school employee organizing has been identified in Utah. charter school community coverage focuses on enrollment growth, authorizer accountability, and virtual charter school operations.

Legislative Context

No charter school community collective bargaining legislation has been introduced in the Utah Legislature. Utah charter law does not address employee collective bargaining. Utah's right-to-work law (Utah Code Ann. §34-34-1 et seq.) has been in effect since 1955.

Section 6: Contract & CBA Access Registry

No collective bargaining agreements documented for this state. Research deferred — charter schools assumed unorganized (PDR-018, June 7, 2026).
