Washington — PERC (WA) Jurisdiction — June 2026

NAPCS Unionization Research • June 2026 • Template v8.0

Section 1: State Overview

State	Washington
Labor Board	PERC (WA) — Public Employment Relations Commission of Washington State
Governing Law	RCW 41.56.0251 — applies RCW ch. 41.56 (PECBA) to all WA charter schools as public employers (enacted SB 6194, 2016). RCW 41.59.031 — charter schools are separate employers from any school district. Chapter 28A.710 RCW — Washington charter school law.
Federal NLRB Jurisdiction	PERC (WA) has exclusive jurisdiction. Federal NLRB does not apply.
Right-to-Work	NOT a Right-to-Work State — Washington has no right-to-work statute. RCW 41.56.0251 classifies WA charter school employees as public employees under PECBA — union security provisions are standard in WA public employee collective bargaining agreements. (WA charter school employees are public employees under RCW 41.56.0251 (SB 6194, 2016). PERC (Public Employment Relations Commission) has exclusive jurisdiction. Public employee union security is standard in WA.)
For-Profit Operator Status	For-profit EMO management contracts permitted under state law
Card-Check Available	YES — RCW 41.56.060 — card-check recognition available at 50%+1 of bargaining unit. Not right-to-work. Voluntary recognition without PERC petition is legal under WA PECBA and explains the absence of any PERC case for WIHS.
Registry Sweep	EXPANDED — June 4, 2026 (WA Charters Association current list) — 15 charter schools searched
Research Window	May 28 – June 4, 2026

Section 4: Legal Framework & Charter School Overview

Findings are based on research as of June 2026.

1: Legal & Jurisdictional Framework

RCW 41.56.0251 — applies RCW ch. 41.56 (PECBA) to all WA charter schools as public employers (enacted SB 6194, 2016). RCW 41.59.031 — charter schools are separate employers from any school district. Chapter 28A.710 RCW — Washington charter school law. Washington is not a right-to-work state (Washington has no right-to-work statute. RCW 41.56.0251 classifies WA charter school employees as public employees under PECBA — union security provisions are standard in WA public employee collective bargaining agreements.). PERC (WA) has exclusive jurisdiction. Federal NLRB does not apply to charter schools in Washington. Card-check recognition is available under RCW 41.56.060 — card-check recognition available at 50%+1 of bargaining unit. Not right-to-work. Voluntary recognition without PERC petition is legal under WA PECBA and explains the absence of any PERC case for WIHS..

2: Charter School Structure

Washington operates 15 open-enrollment charter schools, enrolling approximately 4,708 students. 2 charter management organizations and education management organizations operate in Washington. The largest networks by campus count are Impact Public Schools (4 campuses in state), Summit Public Schools (2 campuses in state). Approximately 9 schools operate independently with no CMO or EMO affiliation. Network-level detail, including campus counts and total enrollment, appears in Section 3 above.

Section 5: Media Coverage & Public Stakeholder Positions

Press Coverage

No press coverage of WA charter school union organizing found. WIHS organizing occurred via voluntary recognition with no public announcement — consistent with the absence of a PERC petition. The only press signal is the KUOW May 2022 investigative report on Impact Public Schools staff conditions. WA Charters Association coverage (wacharters.org/news-and-press/) focuses on school performance and renewal decisions. No organizing-related coverage in Seattle Times, Crosscut, or Chalkbeat Seattle.

Stakeholder Communications

WEA institutional opposition posture toward charter school community. Unite Summit (CA) explicitly CA-only. No WEA or AFT-WA communications referencing organizing of WA charter staff found. No WA charter school employer labor relations communications found. WIHS voluntary recognition occurred without any public employer statement.

Legislative Context

SB 6194 (2016): established PECBA coverage for WA charter schools. Authorization window closed April 2021. Historical: RCW 41.56.036 (2004) — conversion charter carryover rejected by voters (Referendum Measure No. 55, November 2004).
